

Accessing CSU+

1. Search for anything in OneSearch. Use the CSU+ tab to limit search results to items available within the CSU.

2. Sign into OneSearch

3. Select the title to access the item

The screenshot shows the OneSearch interface with the search term "friendship in medieval europe". The results page displays three items. The second item, a book titled "Friendship in medieval Europe" (1999), is highlighted with a red box. The first item is an article in Swedish, and the third is an article in English. The left sidebar shows filters for "Refine My Results", "Sort by Relevance", and "Show Only" options like "Full-text online" and "Available in the Library".

4. If the item is unavailable at the CSUSM library, or is checked out, select "Get it through CSU+ (allow 2-5 days for delivery)"

The screenshot shows the CSUSM library page for the book "Friendship in medieval Europe" (1999). The page includes navigation options like "E-mail", "Permalink", "Citation", "Print", "Export RIS", "EndNote", "RefWorks", and "Reading List". The book title and author information are displayed. A red arrow points to a red box containing the text "Get it through CSU+ (allow up to 2-5 days for delivery)". Below this, it says "No holdings were found" and "SHOW CSU LIBRARIES AVAILABILITY >". Other options include "Try San Diego Circuit (allow 2-5 days for delivery)", "Try Google", and "Need Research Help?". A "REPORT A PROBLEM" button is also visible.

5. If the item is “available for request”, enter volume information is applicable and select “Request”

The screenshot shows a library catalog record for the book "Friendship in medieval Europe" (1999). The "Resource Information" section displays "Item availability: Item available for request" and a "Check availability" button. Below this is a "Volume:" input field. A large "Available?" dialog box is overlaid on the record, containing a "CANCEL" button and a green "REQUEST" button. A red arrow points from the "REQUEST" button back to the "Item available for request" radio button. The top navigation bar includes links for E-mail, Permalink, Citation, Print, Export RIS, EndNote, RefWorks, and Reading List. A sidebar on the left contains filters for "Refine My Results" and "Sort by". A "Your Feedback" button is visible on the right side of the record.

6. If the item is not available through CSU+ or you receive a cancellation email, request the item through Interlibrary Loan

The screenshot shows the same library catalog record for "Friendship in medieval Europe" (1999). The "Get it through CSU+ (allow up to 2-5 days for delivery)" option is selected. A red arrow points from the "Get it through Interlibrary Loan (allow 7-12 days for delivery)" link, which is highlighted with a red box. Below this, the text "No holdings were found" is displayed. A "SHOW CSU LIBRARIES AVAILABILITY >" button is visible. At the bottom, there are links for "Try San Diego Circuit (allow 2-5 days for delivery)", "Try Google", and "Need Research Help?". The top navigation bar and sidebar are identical to the previous screenshot.
